Blumenthal Library Lisa Silverman, Library Director, 310-481-3218

The Sinai Temple Blumenthal Library is one of the finest temple libraries in the nation. We have over 30,000 books, tapes, videos, DVD'S, and other materials, and are open on a year-round basis. We are one of the few temple libraries that have received advanced accreditation by the National Association of Jewish Libraries. Please call to inquire about programs like: Short Story Group, Mid-Day at the Movies and Conversations with the Author.

*Monthly story times on Tuesdays for pre-school through grade 3, led by Shari Charalambous, the SAA Librarian. Call for dates and times.

Sisterhood

The Sinai Temple Sisterhood is a nationally recognized organization. With warm and welcoming nature, our programs range from the educational to the inspirational: music, dance, Jewish culture, and the joy of helping others. We are proud of our accomplishments, and look forward to the continued energy and dynamic that our new members bring.

Men's Club

The Men's Club at Sinai Temple is dedicated to activities that expand the knowledge of Judaism and stimulate social, charitable and cultural activities of its members, and those activities that promote an appreciation of the Jewish heritage among the Jewish community at large.

Chai Society

The Chai Society continues to meet monthly in preparation for their Shabbat morning greeting of congregants on the second and fourth Saturday of every month.
